

"We are here to enhance your lifestyle by bringing clarity, balance and beauty to you through our products and services."

WILSON LEE INTERIORS

Angela Wilson Lee is an award-winning interior designer, construction manager and boutique owner providing services nationwide. As CEO of Wilson Lee Interiors, her design firm and lifestyle boutique, she prioritizes creating spaces and providing products that assure Clarity, Balance & Beauty. Recognized for her keen expertise in improving the lives of others through their interior spaces, Angela is the best-selling author of Women Innovators: Leaders, Makers and Givers; and is currently working on her second book. Her personal story and work have been featured on the covers of local and national magazines.

Because Angela believes in investing in people and showing others how to enhance productivity in the built space, she has shared her gained insight through consultations, speaking engagements, professional seminars and most recently, as an Interior Design instructor at the University of Richmond. With over twenty years of experience as an interior designer, Angela's approach to design instinctively takes the whole being into mind to create inspiring environments for her clients that provide the proper balance to live and work.
